SCHOOL

WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

7 June 2011

Dear Parents

The Grade 7s have been hard at work on their stage production, 'The Mikado', with performances being scheduled for parents on Thursday and Friday evening this week. Tickets are still available and parents are urged to book in order to avoid disappointment.

We also have Grandparents' Days in the Pre-Primary and Junior Prep on Thursday and Friday respectively and your little ones are looking forward to welcoming our grannies and grandpas to Prep!

We are grateful to Mrs Jane Jarvis who gave a very informative talk to our Grade 6s and 7s on how to study effectively. This was well-received by the boys and a follow-up session will be held on Friday.

Included in this week's newsletter is a list of the Festival Shows which we have booked for the respective classes. The girls and boys attend school in their civvies during the latter part of the National Arts Festival and they will be accompanied to shows and workshops by their class teachers. This list is included for local parents' information so as to avoid clashes should you wish to book for your children as well.

The term is gathering momentum with a host of academic, cultural and sporting activities scheduled between now and half-term and we do look forward to your support as far as possible.

Have a good week.

Pre-Primary News

We made our own version of sushi and ate it with chopsticks, then we had a visit from a real Japanese girl in a kimono! On Wednesday this week we'll watch the dress rehearsal of "The Mikado".

We're looking forward to Grandparents' Day on Thursday at 10:00. If grandparents are far away, please arrange for a special person to come to school on that day. There are so many other occasions for parents to visit the school and watch their little ones, that for once - NO PARENTS ALLOWED!

Please remember to send shoes for our Shoe theme next week.

Junior Prep News

Just a friendly reminder: when your child is absent from school, the school must be notified on the day by 8h00. If your child comes to school, but is not well enough to attend afternoon activities, please let the coaches and teachers know ahead of time.

We are looking forward to Grandparents Day. We will entertain you in a marquee' in our gardens, so dress warmly and enjoy our little show. See you on Friday at 10h30.

We have been invited to a cushion show on Wednesday at Top Prep. We will be watching our 'big brothers' in their production of 'Mikado'.
