ST ANDREW'S PREPARATORY SCHOOL

Dear Parents

On Monday we celebrated 133 years of Prep's existence. That's quite remarkable when you think of it. Prep has "lived" through three different centuries and two world wars. Our school was founded in the same year as the modern bicycle, she was born before the motor car, and no doubt Preppies of all ages were dreaming of flying when "Kitty Hawk" left the ground that first time in North Carolina.

Legendary are the stories of little boys being dropped off at a rail siding in rural Zambia, travelling three days on a train, changing stations along the way, disembarking at the top of the hill to wander on foot down to Prep lugging a trunk; only to repeat the journey in reverse three months later.

Like the story of those hardy boys of Africa, the Prep story is a quite remarkable one. In celebrating Prep's birthday we could take time to give thanks to the vision and fortitude of the founders of our great little school, and to all those who came before us, staff and children, who have left the school in such a fine space for us to enjoy.

It is quite humbling, the legacy we have been left to continue. I felt it apt to share with the children and staff an exhortation from "Mr Prep", Lorraine Mullins who has, uniquely I would venture, been involved with Prep in one way or another for more than half its existence. In the closing of 'I'll Sing You One-oh" Mr Mullins asks us to: "Go on caring. Care about yourselves, your work and your play, your family and your friends; about the world about you, and about what you believe in. Just care!"

Mr B
